Guest Speaker Profiles

JAMES FINCH - Partner; Managing Director, DFDL Myanmar

James Finch's experience in the legal field spans three decades and has taken him to the Middle East, Latin America, the Caribbean and Asia. Within Asia, James has worked in Hanoi and in 1996 he moved to practice in Yangon, Myanmar. In Myanmar he has advised on energy, hard minerals, corporate issues, tax, aircraft leasing, hotel development, banking and finance matters, among others. During this period he also served on Russin & Vecchi's management committee for several years. In 2005, Jim joined DFDL as Senior Of Counsel to establish DFDL's Myanmar practice, as well as advise clients in Laos and Cambodia. In 2007 the former Russin & Vecchi office in Yangon changed its name to Myanmar Thanlwin Legal Services Ltd and entered into an exclusive affiliation with DFDL. Jim continues to provide advice on Myanmar legal issues in Yangon. He speaks English and Spanish.

LÉON DE RIEDMATTEN – Associate Consultant; PeaceNexus Foundation

Léon is a field diplomat presently working with the PeaceNexus Foundation as Associate Consultant in Myanmar. Léon acts as an independent adviser to the peace process to facilitate dialogue between the government and the ethnic nationalities. He also guides a project related to role of business investments in the Myanmar peace process with focus on Kayin State where a ceasefire has been reached between the government and the Karen National Union.

For over 30 years, Léon de Riedmatten has carried out humanitarian missions for organizations such as the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), the United Nations (UN), the Association François-Xavier Bagnoud (AFXB) and the Centre for Humanitarian Dialogue (HDC). Léon has also acted as an international consultant for several Swiss institutions and performed assessment missions to Latin America and the Balkans. As a result of his successful mediation missions in Timor-Leste, he was awarded the medal of merit from the President of the State.

Of Swiss/Valais origin, Léon also managed for one year the local football team FC Sion, which under his management won both the Swiss Championship and the Swiss Cup in 1997. Léon holds a bachelor's degree of Arts and has studied Law in Swiss Universities.
